As a professional, you are used to delivering results, and seeing results delivered to you in return. You have little patience with methods that are lengthy or ambiguous or that rarely hit their mark. Therefore, in today's competitive marketplace and challenging economic climate, "your" job search is particularly challenging, and finding the right professional position for "you" can become complex and frustrating. "The Fast Track Guide to a Professional Job Search" was written to take the guesswork out of finding the right executive-level position for you. Serving as your handy guide and indispensable companion, it contains everything you need to drive your job search and career forward. It takes you all the way from setting your career path, through the planning and strategizing, the execution, the emotional rollercoaster, and all the way to offer evaluation and acceptance. Written by Joanie Natalizio, a professional executive coach who steers a successful business coaching practice, 'The Fast Track Guide to a Professional Job Search' teaches you to distinguish yourself, present your unique strengths and capabilities, and make sure an offer is a good fit for you before you accept it. All through the book, the easy to use checklists make sure you stay on track. How to create a professional biography and tips on evaluating compensation packages are just a few of the many executive job search topics discussed. Joanie reveals little known tips traditionally restricted to executive career coaching sessions, so that you have an extra edge in your job search. With "The Fast Track Guide to a Professional Job Search" at hand, you can proceed in your executive job search with clarity, competence and complete confidence. A comprehensive guide for job hunters and career changers offers hundreds of ideas to help land the right job--updated to include new technology, resources, and approaches to resume+a7 writing and interviewing that reflect today's job market. Original. 30,000 first printing. A fill-in companion to the world's most popular job-search book, updated for 2019. This interactive companion to the career classic What Color Is Your Parachute? is a helpful tool for recent grads, workers laid off mid-career, and people searching for an inspiring work-life change. Featuring the Flower Exercise, Party Exercise, Transferable Skills Grid, and more of Richard Bolles's helpful charts and activities, this workbook allows job-hunters to roll up their sleeves and discover their unique interests, passions, and dreams that will give them, once completed, a picture of their dream job. Getting a job is a race to the finish line . . . So why walk when you can run? You might think that only techies and geeks look for jobs online and that only high-tech companies list their openings on Web sites. But you'd be wrong. In the information age, going online is often the quickest, easiest, and cheapest way to find what you're looking for--and that holds true for job hunters, too. In fact, if you aren't online, you're missing out on thousands of opportunities in almost every field. And you don't have to be a computer genius. All you need is access to the Internet and a little bit of guidance. Using the Internet--and this book--you can get your name and resume in front of more people in an hour than you can in a week using conventional methods. Your 24/7 Online Job Search Guide is designed for those who don't have much computer experience. Fast, easy, and informative, this book gives you the knowledge you need to get online--and get a job. Topics include: * An introduction to the Internet and the job-search resources you can find online * Assessing your goals and getting started * Protecting yourself from identity theft and other frauds * Building your online resume * Using e-mail, Usenet, mailing lists, and newsgroups * The best job-search sites and industry-specific sites on the Web * Technical terms you might need to know * Using corporate information sites to investigate a particular company * Doing in-person interviews An interactive companion to the world's most popular job-search book, updated for 2021, that helps you translate your personal interests into marketable job skills. This fill-in workbook for the career classic What Color Is Your Parachute? is a helpful tool for recent grads, workers laid off mid-career, and anyone searching for an inspiring work-life change. Featuring • New information that addresses the job-market in the pandemic era • The Flower Exercise that gets everything about your skills and preferences in one place • The Party Exercise to help you discover who you work best with • The Transferable Skills Grid that helps you discover your most valuable skills and more of Richard N. Bolles's helpful charts and activities, this workbook allows job-hunters to roll up their sleeves and discover how their unique interests, passions, and dreams will give them, once completed, a picture of their dream job. [Revised Edition] The Job Hunter's Guide is an easy-to-use book will guide you through your job search process, step-by-step. It includes helpful tips on: * Networking and Research; * Informational interviews; * Writing resume and cover letters; * Preparing for a job interview; * Interview do's and don'ts; * What to expect and how to answer difficult questions; and * Follow-up. The Job Hunter's Guide includes valuable examples and is a must have for employment service agencies, labour boards, career coaches and job hunters alike. Despite a growing economy with a low unemployment rate, finding a decent job is a difficult undertaking. The process is laborious and time consuming, and job hunters can easily become disillusioned. As a consultant who has worked in dozens of companies, Robert Fairview understands the challenges that job hunters face in the modern world. In this book, he guides job seekers in their quest to find suitable jobs and prepares them for the obstacles that lie ahead. The journey covers the entire spectrum of the job-hunting and hiring process. From career planning to the first day on a new job, Fairview shares his insight in a humorous yet practical way. Pretty Serious Job-Hunting Stuff is loaded with useful tips and real-life examples, and it contains only trace amounts of bullsh*t. People need places in which to live, work, play, learn, worship, meet, govern, shop, and eat. Architects are responsible for designing these places, whether they are private or public; indoors or out; rooms, buildings, or complexes. Architects are licensed professionals trained in the art and science of building design who develop the concepts for structures and turn those concepts into images and plans. This book gives you good solid advice and great strategies for getting interviews and landing the job as Architect. To Prepare for the Job this book tells you: - The training and education needed - Earnings - Expected job prospects - The job's activities and responsibilities - Working conditions To Land the Job, it gives you the hands-on and how-to's insight on: - Finding Opportunities - the best places to find them - Writing Unbeatable Resumes and Cover Letters - Acing the Interview - What to Expect From Recruiters - How employers hunt for Job-hunters.... and More This book offers excellent, insightful advice for everyone from entry level to senior professionals. None of the other such career guides compare with this one. It stands out because it: 1. Explains how the people doing the hiring think, so that you can win them over on paper and then in your interview; 2. Is filled with useful cheat and work-sheets; 3. Explains every step of the job-hunting process - from little known ways for finding openings to getting ahead on the job. This book covers everything. Whether you are trying to get your first job or move up in the system, get this book. One hundred pages of lifesaving advice for people out of work. When over ten million people have needed help with their job-hunt—or with figuring out what to do with their life—there is one person they have turned to, more than any other. He is Richard N. Bolles, author of the #1 job-hunting book of all time, What Color Is Your Parachute? His name is well-known around the world. Just during the last twelve months, he has appeared in Time (“10 Ideas Changing the World Right Now,” March 2009), U.S. News & World Report (deemed “savior of the nation’s unemployed,” October 2008), NBC’s Today Show (broadcast in April 2009), and many other publications and shows. His book was the #1 best-seller on BusinessWeek’s paperback list as recently as last November. Never has his advice been more sought than during these brutal economic times. He has responded by writing a completely new book: The Job-Hunter’s Survival Guide, designed particularly for people who are hanging on the ropes, who haven’t time to do a lot of reading but need help desperately—and now. Early reviews have called this little Guide “brilliant” and “tremendously helpful.” This new edition of the multinational bestseller shows you how to develop the skills and values that employers always seek, and where today's employment opportunities are. This is your complete course in finding that perfect job. From crafting the perfect CV and finding the job of your dreams, to writing a great cover letter and winning at interview, THE ULTIMATE JOB HUNTING BOOK is a dynamic collection of tools, techniques, and strategies for success.
