

OPEN THE WINDOWS!

TB is spread in the air when someone with TB coughs, sneezes, spits or talks

When doors and windows are closed, the TB bacteria stay inside the house

When doors and windows are open, clean air blows the TB bacteria outside

